Summary (100 words or less)

Once an article has been accepted, the author will be asked to sign a copyright release form that gives the National Bar Association first rights to the article. If the article has appeared in another publication, the National Bar Association will not accept the article unless a release form signed by the publisher; or a letter from the author indicating that a reservation of right was obtained accompanies it.

If there are any questions regarding copyrighting or any other aspect of the NBA Magazine, contact the National Bar Association, 1225 Eleventh Street, NW; Washington, DC 20001; 202-842-3900.
